[DISPATCHES TO THE OREGONIAN.]

DATES TO MAY 10.

The Great Trial—Interesting Details.

CHICAGO, May 12.—The Senate remained in session until near midnight. Specials to the morning papers give a partial report of the proceedings. The excitement in Washington is tremendous. During the session of the Senate Mr. Sherman declared that he could not vote for the 1st article, though his speech indicated that he would find him guilty on the second, fourth and eleventh.

Mr. Stewart took strong grounds for conviction on all the articles.

Mr. Grimes made a lengthy speech. He did not consider the Secretary within the Tenure of Office law. He did not think there was any distinction between the power of the President to remove during the recess and the power to remove during the session of the Senate an officer who held solely by his pleasure. He dismissed the conspiracy article very briefly. He said he had no doubt the President thoroughly believed the Tenure of Office law unconstitutional, and having been advised of its unconstitutionality by members of his Cabinet, in finding Stanton he thought it not strange that the President should desire to test the question. He deeply regretted the differences between President and Congress, but could not in his judicial capacity record a vote that he had been guilty of high crimes and misdemeanors.

Mr. Edmunds spoke next. As he drew up the Tenure of Office Act there was great curiosity to hear his view of the case. He said the President was clearly guilty under the 1st article. The only question was whether they constituted high crimes and misdemeanors. He thought the President's course in removing Stanton and appointing Thomas so grossly illegal as to constitute high crime. He should therefore vote for conviction under the 1st of those articles. He should not support the conspiracy articles.

Mr. Williams the fifth speaker. He reached about the same conclusion as Mr. Edmunds. He would vote for the 1st, 2nd and 8th articles, and left the impression that he might possible vote for others.

Mr. Howe spoke nearly in the same strain as Mr. Sherman. He could not vote for the 1st article, but would support the 2nd, 3rd and 11th.

Mr. Hendricks was the first Democratic speaker. He opposed all the articles. He said the impeachment, if carried at all, would be carried as a partisan measure, not as a measure of justice.

Messrs. Pomeroy and Morrill followed, and indicated that they would vote for all the principal articles but against that about the President's speeches, and that resting on the evidence of General Emory.

At this point a recess of fifteen minutes was taken. During the time there was much comparing of notes among the impeachers, inside and outside the Senate. It was generally conceded that the case against the President began to look doubtful, but all said it was not yet time to give it up, though Wade and Wilson said there did not appear to be much chance for conviction. There was talk of postponing the vote from to-morrow till sometime next month, but the proposition did not seem to meet with general favor.

Mr. Doolittle was the first speaker after the recess. He followed Hendricks' views and made an eloquent speech against the whole body of the articles.

Davis took the extreme Democratic position in relation to the matter. Of course, he will vote "not guilty."

Mr. Henderson spoke next. He read a carefully prepared opinion, but of no great length, taking grounds that the Tenure of Office act did not apply to Mr. Stanton's case, as he had not been appointed by Johnson. He only held the office by the Presidents assent since the close of Lincoln's term. He did not think it necessary to discuss the question of intent, because no law had been violated. He said he had no sympathy with the President's political course, but could not decide the question now at issue on party grounds. He indicated he would vote against all the principal articles.

Messrs. Dixon and Johnson then spoke in the order named, both declaring there was no case against the President. The latter read a very long and elaborate paper, going over all the points at issue, but only part was read to-day.

Mr. Trumbull next stated his opinion. He had been counted by outsiders as sure to vote for two or three articles, but this count, it appears was not well founded, for he made a strong speech against the first and second articles which are the basis of the whole case. He said the act creating the War Department gave the President power to remove its head officer. This power was in no way effected till the passage of the tenure of office act. He held that the act does not apply to Stanton, for he was not included in the general terms of the first section of that act, and because all the Cabinet are specially fixed by provision thereto, and Stanton though Secretary de facto, is not covered by the provisions because the term of his appointment expired with the end of Mr. Lincoln's term. The law could not accommodate itself to circumstances of any individual. The Senator spoke chiefly on the first and second articles reading his views on the first at some length. He indicated generally that he could not vote for any of them, saying the question must be determined from a judicial and not from the personal standpoint.

Mr. Fessenden was the last speaker of the afternoon session. He spoke at more length than any other Senator treating the whole question presented by the House with much fullness, declaring against every article.

About half past five o'clock a recess took place till half past seven. During this interval there was great excitement in political circles and the condition of affairs was discussed in terms neither cool nor polite. The evening session lasted till 11 o'clock. It was not very fully attended, several leading Senators being absent. It has been arranged, as it seems, that the floor should not be taken by any of the so called doubtful Senators, in order to let them have an opportunity for further reflection before further committing themselves. The speakers were Buckalew against and Conness, Wilson, Harlan and Morton for conviction. At the close of the discussion a proposition was submitted to postpone taking the vote, but it went over for action till to-morrow, when the session begins at half past 11 o'clock.

A considerable number of Senators are in favor of postponing the vote on the articles for three or four weeks, but it does not look to-night as if this proposition could be carried. Of the Senators who have not yet spoken, Messrs. Anthony, Corbett, Freelinghuysen, Tipton, Van Winkle and Wiley are regarded as more or less doubtful. The first impeachment article is already gone by two votes. Everybody gives it up. The second and third articles are not yet lost, nor can anybody as yet see that they are sure to be carried. Democrats generally are in good spirits. The extreme spirits among impeachers are quite despondent, while the coolest and most impartial observers hold that there is still some chance for conviction.

NEW YORK, May 12.—The Tribune has a special Washington dispatch dated 2:15 this morning, stating that Howard's physician is of the opinion that he will be able to take his seat in the Senate to-day.

Mr. Frelinghuysen is sure to vote for conviction on the first three articles. This will carry Mr. Willey also.

WASHINGTON, May 12—12:30, P. M.—The vote on the President's trial is postponed until Saturday.

Congressional.

WASHINGTON, May 11.—In the House, a large number of bills will be introduced. Among them, one to settle finally titles to Mexican land grants in California.

Washburne of Illinois offered a resolution for a recess from and after Friday to the 16th inst. This was tabled on motion of Upson—62 against 62—the Speaker giving the casting vote in the affirmative.

On motion of Coburn, General Grant was called on for the vote on the constitutions of North Carolina, South Carolina, Georgia, Louisiana and Alabama.

On motion of Spaulding, the Committee on Ways and Means were instructed to in preparing a bill regulating duties on imports to have regard to an equalization by an amendment relating to the imports from other countries with the amount exported from the United States, so far as the same can be effected by a judicious tariff.

Oakley offered a concurrent resolution for a recess from Saturday next till the 25th. Adopted by 69 to 67.

A bill appropriating $87,000 for reconstruction deficiencies in the Third Military District passed.

Stevens, from the Reconstruction Committee, reported a bill to admit North Carolina, South Carolina, Louisiana and Alabama to representation in this Congress, which was made the special order for Monday next.

In the House Farnsworth reported a bill to relieve about 200 persons in North Carolina from political disabilities. The list included Governor Holden, the Lieutenant Governor elect, the Judges of the Supreme Court and two members of Congress elect, one being Boyden. The bill was considered and passed by a vote of 88 to 28.

Several bills and resolutions were introduced and referred.

The Senate is in secret session to day.

WASHINGTON, May 11.—In the Senate, after the doors were closed this morning, the Chief Justice presented a form which he had prepared for taking the final vote, in substance as follows: "Senator (Blank). How say you? Is respondent guilty or not guilty of the high crimes and misdemeanors in office as charged in article (Blank)."

Most of the articles charge the President with high misdemeanors only, while the fourth charges him with high crimes. The question will be put according to the reading. If the article accuses the President only of a high misdemeanor, the words 'high crimes,' will be left out and vice versa.

Sumner submitted the following which was considered by unanimous consent and agreed upon: "Ordered that the question be put as proposed by the presiding officer of the Senate, and each Senator will rise in his place and answer, guilty or not guilty.

Matters at Washington.

The Times' Washington dispatch has the following: The friends of Secretary McCulloch state that there has been an open rupture between him and the President. He says he will resign on Tuesday, just as soon as the vote is taken on the impeachment question, whether the President is convicted or not.

A general conference of the Southern Congressmen elect and other persons now in Washington on business connected with the admission of the Southern States, will occur at the rooms of the North Carolina delegation this (Wednesday) morning. It is expected that a definite plan regarding the participation of the delegates in the Chicago Convention will be effected.

Financial Matters.

WASHINGTON, May 11.—The Secretary of the Treasury gives notice that compound interest notes intended for conversion into three per cent. temporary loan certificates, must either be presented to the Assistant Treasurer at New York, who has full charge of such certificates, or to the Treasurer of the United States at Washington, who will issue the certificates which on presentation at the office of the Assistant Treasurer at New York will entitle the holder to such certificates in exchange. Compound interest notes intended for redemption in lawful money must be forwarded to the Treasurer of the United States at Washington.

The President of the Union Pacific railroad has submitted an affidavit to the Secretary of the Interior showing the completion of an additional section of twenty miles of the road, from 560th to the 580 mile post, and the Government Commissioners have been instructed to examine and report thereon.

The Committee of Ways and Means will probably report an amended tax bill. It proposes to create the internal revenue bureau into a department. Whiskey tax is kept at $2. Tax on cigars will be raised to $10 per 1000. The brewers have failed to get wastage allowed by the bill. It will be acted upon by the House immediately after the Chicago Convention.

NEW YORK, May 11.—The Herald's Washington special says the friends of acquittal claim confidently that they are sure of at least six Republicans voting on that side. Betting is at a standstill.

Senator Wilson stated to a gentleman last week that Morrill of Maine, told him he was greatly worried; that things looked quite blue; that his colleague Fessenden was preparing an opinion adverse to conviction.

Miscellaneous.

NEW YORK, May 11.—A mob in Bridge street, Brooklyn, Saturday night, attempted to rescue two prisoners who were being taken to the station house. Stones and bricks were hurled at the officers who had them in charge. Several pistol shots were fired. Charles McIlenny in his own store at the time was severely wounded in the thigh. The prisoners were finally secured.

A tornado visited Hudson river near Cold Springs Saturday, capsizing one vessel and throwing another on her beam ends and driving three ashore. No lives were lost.

Dr. G. W. Dryslee, his wife and three children were poisoned in Newark, Saturday, by eating shad which had been bought of a travelling fisherman. One child died. The rest of the family were still alive last night.

At the anniversary of American Home Missionary society last night Rev. J. S. Thompson preached the annual sermon. The report sets forth that the society has employed 500 preachers during the past year and expended $294,666 of the $292,130 in the treasury.

From Mexico.

HAVANA, May 10.—There are strong reasons for believing that Secretary Seward has ordered our Charge de Affairs to immediately demand redress for outrages on American merchants at Monterey, Mexico.

HAVANA, May 11.—Information has been received that the American Government has come to a decisive determination regarding the Idaho and other vessels. Instructions were received by the steamer Eagle to resist paying fines till the Spanish government enforces them and then to pay them under protest.

At Matanzas the Mexican bark Selma has been fined $7,000 for a mistake in her manifest. Her cargo consisted of lumber. The entry was correct in fact, but a clerical error was made in reducing the meters. When the Captain General Lersundi returns the matter will probably be arranged.

BY ATLANTIC CABLE.

PARIS, May 11.—The Emperor and Empress were at Orleans yesterday. In response to the Mayor's address of welcome, the Emperor made a pacific speech.

The Herald's special dispatch from London, May 10th says a telegram from Malta dated to-day, reports that dispatches from China have been received of the arrival of Farragut, announcing that the United States steamer Shenandoah, seven guns, serving on the Asiatic squadron, had proceeded under orders to Corea, to inquire into the fate of any survivors of the American bark General Sherman, who may be found on the territory of the peninsula.

LONDON, May 11.—Considerable excitement is occasioned by telegrams from Ashton, announcing the breaking out of a serious anti Popery riot in that city. The mob paraded the streets, sacking houses and outraging the people. Several persons were shot. At last accounts the riot had been suppressed and the city was quiet.

BERLIN, May 11.—The Zollverein Diet has adopted the Customs treaty recently negotiated with Austria.

FROM THE NORTH.

VICTORIA, May 12.—A report prevails that the crew of the schooner Growler were murdered by the Hidah Indians, but it appears to be entirely unfounded.

Oregon Politics.

The Enterprise has the following:

Ben Hayden, by nature a traitor in all his instincts, imitates the "Brick Pomeroy" style of logic by a liberal use of Five Points Democratic billingsgate in his addresses before the species. He exhausts the rogue's vocabulary in an attempt to aspire to the character of men who like himself, turned their back on the Democratic rebellion—but utterly unlike him in all things else; for after denouncing traitors and treason in unmeasured terms, Ben. Hayden, a disappointed candidate for office in the Union party—proved himself twice a traitor, by creeping back into the Copperhead den.

This is just on a par with the foul slang which Beriah Brown pitches at men immensely his betters in every gentlemanly accomplishment, because, forsooth, they decline any further affiliation with the rebel party. "Irish Traitors!" are they Beriah?" Traitors to what—to treason—to secession and rebellion. To the low lived Copperheadism of such creatures as yourself, Beriah! Certainly abuse is to be expected where—slander is praise. There men are in a party who swore in the red hour of battle an eternal fealty to the Union. They are under a flag upon which is inscribed in letters of light, Freedom and the Rights of man. This proud banner we expect to carry "full high advanced," leading the van of civilization, till the last relic of barbarism, Modern Democracy, in our own land, and every form of despotism in other lands, is buried under the waves of a fiery indignation flowing from the true hearts of the people.

The Record says:

The OREGONIAN occasionally dishes up for the enjoyment of Beriah Brown and the refreshing of the War Democrats, some of the editorial paragraphs that graced the columns of the Democratic Press when Beriah Brown presided over them. They consist of wholesale denunciations of Lincoln, Congress, Union men, Generals and soldiers. The war was declared to be treasonable on the part of the Government, and the injured and insulted South had the full and entire sympathies of the editor aforesaid, and he found plenty of time and opportunity to disseminate his opinions through the columns of the journal he edited. We cannot see that he failed at all to make his rebel sympathies and tendencies plainly understood.

But the Herald says these extracts are "garbled," and intimates, by some fine special pleading, that great injustice has been done to its editor by the dishing up of the "round, unvarnished tale" he delivered as a California editor. It is difficult to perceive how any statement can be "garbled" which is full, complete and explicit in itself and leaves neither occasion for doubt nor room for conjecture. These extracts are all complete and explicit; they condemn Lincoln and his administration, condemn the war, and sympathize with the South. What more do men need to know, to decide that the Democratic Press and its editor were friends and allies of the rebellion? and until those sentiments are renounced, what confidence can be placed in him, or in his pretenses of being anything like a loyal citizen?

The Mountaineer of Saturday has the subjoined:

Benj. Hayden of Polk county addressed the voters of the Dalles on Monday evening and again on Wednesday evening. His manner and tone has considerably changed since he was here last, he has become quite docile and manageable—in fact, he is a Conservative. We honestly believe that he has done more harm for his cause in this vicinity than good. The day for blackguard political speeches has passed, at least in this intelligent community. Col. Kelly addressed the people on Wednesday evening. This was the first time we have had the pleasure of hearing him make a speech, and are sorry to say that we were much disappointed. It was not such a speech as we expected to hear from a first class politician, either in its logic, eloquence, or the manner of its delivery. The whole speech amounted to nothing more than an ordinary exhortation, praying, coaxing and beseeching the Democrats who have bolted the present Democratic organization of this county, to come back and turn from the error of their ways. The oil that he attempted to pour upon the "troubled waters" only had the effect to make matters more turbulent. And instead of his being a high toned orator as we had supposed him to be, from the reputation that he enjoys abroad, he appears to us to be nothing more than a very ordinary political demagogue, controlled by a few doggoning regulators and wire pullers who load and fire off at such times as they see fit.

Just to show how great a fool a man may be and live, we give the following from Abbott's Democrat:

If you would have negro wenches eat at the same table, mix in with the same company, and sit in the same pew with your wives and daughters, vote for L. gan and all the rest on his ticket. They will not admit that they are in favor of all this—not now—but at the same time they advocate a policy which will produce such results as surely as that thunder follows the lightning's flash.

Senator Trumbull's bill providing that jurors on trial before United States courts, shall not be held incompetent on account of opinions formed on current rumors proposes a sensible and much needed reform by rejecting a rule suited rather to the middle ages.

The Cincinnati Commercial has just issued an extra sheet which contains thirty two pages of fine type, without a single advertisement. It is a rare newspaper curiosity, and probably beats anything ever before attempted on either side of the Atlantic.

Pure and Undefiled Democracy.

The following article appears as an editorial in the La Crosse Democrat, the most popular and widely circulated "Democratic" journal in the Union, a paper that has a wider circulation even in Oregon than any of the "Democratic" papers published here. That the infamous sentiments expressed in the article are those of the party at large cannot be doubted, though very likely many of them would deny that they held any such opinions. When they rush by thousands to the support of the beastly, profane and indecent sheet which indulges daily in such writing, their denials of sympathy with the articles amount to nothing:

THE CHRISTIAN ASSOCIATIONS AWAKENING.

These long haired imps of niggerism and bitter foes to true religion, the Young Men's Christian Associations (so called), who infest the State of Wisconsin, have issued a "call" for a general love feast of the brethren, to be holden at Madison this week. The ostensible object is to extend the evangelical faith into the rural districts through the efforts of lay missionaries, the brethren claiming that the people are so anxious for orthodox religion that the regular ministers cannot supply the spiritual wants of their flocks; hence the necessity that the lay brethren do lay hold and flop round in the Lord's vineyard until they do lay out the unbelievers. This plausible yarn may do for school marms or wheezy Puritans, but to the mind's eye of an able bodied working white man, it looketh amazingly like a huge Sabbath school lie, the demand for Evangelical faith is dealt with a downward tendency; thousands of high pressure divines are out of commission, perambulating the country, selling the "lives" of the Late Lamented, peddling patent Itch Killer, and picking up precarious subsistence in various other itinerant callings, for which their ministerial experience has well qualified them. In the next place, who ever heard of a great missionary effort being started in the spring, at the commencement of the busy season when every one is hurried, while the dull winter months are allowed to pass by unimproved.

No, the true object of the forth-coming Devil's Auction, or Young Men's Christian Association campaign, is to put a large force of semi-idle vagabonds in the field to prowl through the country, dead beating it all round, sponging their victuals, organizing prayer circles on the Ethiopian basis and setting up Grant clubs in every town, village and hamlet. What care the bankrupt scoundrels, who compose the Young Men's Christian Associations, for the cause of Christ and Him crucified? Who ever knew a broken down analyzer (on the Chicago or Milwaukee Boards of Trade) who failed and settled up at twenty cents, on the dollar, three years' paper, that was not a loud mouth member of the association? Who ever knew a man to go through bankruptcy on false affidavits, and bogus schedule, who was not a hard praying member of the association. Where is there a defaulting bank clerk, a thieving railroad officer, or a dishonest merchant, who is not stockholder in the Young Men's Christian Association cities? In the Western cities their rooms are generally located near the Board of Trade, who compose most of their membership, and it is notorious that no such collection of finished, polished, heartless rascals are to be found elsewhere on the planet as the men who compose these same Boards of Trade. The mongrels are using their religious understrappers to sandwich bondholding politics in between their hymns and sermons. And it devolves on Democratic journals and speakers to warn the people against the Satanic white nigger mobs, known as Christian Associations, Aid Societies, Mission Clubs, etc. Democrats, avoid them as you would the plague. Protect your children from their insidious wiles; they are the bastard foes of your race and your God. The Almighty is wiping the foul breed from the face of the earth. Their missions, their associations, and their reign will soon terminate. White men, we must check mate these psalm-saying hypocrites this year, and their power will be gone forever.

Our political opponents are hard up for an available Presidential candidate. The San Francisco Call, good Democratic authority, has opened the auction market and is loudly calling for bids. In its issue of the 21st, appears the following:

Even Grant, with all the military glory which is supposed to surround him, if he is the choice of the Radicals, cannot direct the attention of the people from the deplorable results to follow his election. Supposing Grant to be the Radical candidate, he can be readily defeated if his opponents are only wise in selecting a candidate. In the first place, they must select a candidate who was not an opponent of the Government in its efforts to put down the rebellion by legitimate means. Of the candidates mentioned in opposition to Grant, are Pendleton, Blair, Haight, the Seymours, and Bigler, of Pennsylvania. Seymour, of New York, while opposing the leading political ideas of Lincoln's administration, gave good evidence of his devotion to the Union. Governor Haight has recently made himself a good name, and, did he live east of the Rocky Mountains, would be a strong candidate. While nothing can be said against him, much can be said in his favor, and though the lack of political strength in the Pacific States may prevent his nomination, it will be the part of wisdom on the part of our delegates to present his name for the position. General Frank Blair, is a sound, conservative, constitutional Democrat, the enemy of Radicalism, and has a good record. Pendleton is a man of great ability, but his financial notions, his plan to pay off the national debt in greenbacks, will kill any party that indorses them. Better and more honorable to repudiate the debt at once, than to pretend to pay it on Pendleton's plan, for that is indirect repudiation. If the Democrats take up Pendleton, they will invite their own defeat. To insure success, they must take Haight, Blair or Seymour, or a man of their standing and reputation.

The only hope of the Democracy, then, to elect a President in the coming campaign, is to find for a candidate a man who is both a Democrat and a Republican—at once an original Abolitionist and a firm believer in slavery and secession.

George Washington presided over the first anti-slavery meeting ever held in this country, in 1792.

The Issues Renewed.

They who would renew the issues of the war in the political conflict will not permit us to forget that struggle if we would, nor their own agency in it. A monstrous crime has been committed, whose wounds the country will carry for generations. A political party in the nation to-day reaffirms, and proclaims its purpose to re-establish, if it obtains power, the very doctrines which led to the perpetration of this great crime against our government and country. The Democratic party of Oregon have pledged anew their "unswerving fidelity" to the dogmas which led to all our difficulties. The people have witnessed the deadly fruits of the "time-honored principles;" will they permit the party to triumph which comes before them with an avowed purpose of again making these doctrines the rule of the Government? Is Pendleton, the man whom this party declares for as their candidate for the head of the Government, and who loses no opportunity of proclaiming his "unswerving fidelity" to the principles he has always held—is Pendleton any different from what he was when he declared Southern Independence an accomplished fact, and its coercion impossible and wrong, and when he continued all through the war to repeat this declaration and to use all his political power and influence to make these doctrines triumphant?

Not only do they renew the issues of the war as to the principles which are to prevail in the Government, but they also affirm doctrines which would invalidate all that has been done in support of the Union against those who tried to destroy it. To them everything which has been done since 1861 is unconstitutional. On this subject the Sacramento Union says:

> The war was wrong in its inception, in its prosecution, and therefore in its results. If this be so, if our war measures were unconstitutional, there is no escape from demands for damages and compensation. Under Democratic rule, the rebels must be recognized as having grievances to be redressed, wrongs to be righted, claims to be paid. They had all their constitutional rights during the war, and hence their property taken or destroyed by our armies must be restored to them. The emancipation was unconstitutional, therefore compensation for their slaves is legitimate and proper. The Democracy cannot escape from these results of their doctrines, nor, apparently do they wish to. They assent to the abolition of slavery as a fact, but even that they might demur against, were it not for policy and because they merely echo their rebel allies. Neither rebels nor Democrats have agreed that there shall be no recognition of Confederate debts, war losses and compensation for slaves. On the contrary, these propositions embodied in the constitutional amendment have been rejected by them with unanimity. The war is to them still an "unholy war;" and all the wrongs suffered in it were suffered by rebels and themselves. To this proposition, repudiation is only a suitable complement. To reject and disallow the claims of those who furnished the sinews of war to the Government is a necessary corollary to the Democratic argument in favor of the rebels.

"CHIVALRY" RAMPANT.—The Democratic Convention of California, which assembled a few days ago, adopted the following, among other windy resolutions:

> Resolved, That it is not only the patriotic duty, but the deliberate purpose of the Democratic party never to submit to be governed by negroes, nor by those claiming to be elected by negro suffrage; and we do earnestly recommend the adoption of this resolution by the National Convention of the Democratic party which shall assemble in July next.

This is the very same spirit which produced the great rebellion. No one has forgotten that the Southern people, encouraged by the Northern Democrats, declared that they would "never submit" to the election of a "Black Republican" President. This idea was far more odious to them then than negro suffrage now is to the Democratic party. Mr. Lincoln, however, was elected, and what happened afterwards they are not likely to forget. This threat "never to submit," etc., would drive away from the polls the colored men of New York and other Northern States where a few years ago, they were clothed with the prerogatives of voters by Democrats, when that party was less given over to hatred of the negro than now, and when it was even debating the propriety of placing itself fairly on "Abolition" ground. Let it be remembered that the real opposition of that party to equal suffrage in the South arises not from the fact that the negro is black, but from the fact that most of them are loyal. At the outset they professed to rejoice in colored suffrage, on the assumption that they could control the votes of the freedmen.

The Herald has an article entitled "The game of bluff,"—referring to the betting which has been talked of for some days—which is almost as full of misstatements as of words. It assumes that certain Union men have been "blustering around and playing "a bluff game for the purpose of creating a false impression." The truth is, as everybody here knows, the offers to bet came from Democrats, and the "blustering" was all on their side. There was no proposition to bet from the Union side; there was merely a response to the "blustering" propositions of Democrats. This response brought the "betting Democrats" up with a round turn. They had been playing "a bluff game for the purpose of creating a false impression." They will not offer any more money on the same terms.

Mr. Sullivan's Speech.

A good audience was in attendance at the Court House last (Tuesday) evening to hear the speech of Hon. P. C. Sullivan. The speaker's remarks were directed mainly to existing political issues, were argumentative and cogent and did much credit to his ability. The effect of the speech was good. Mr. Sullivan is one of the most effective Union speakers in Oregon, and by his able efforts is contributing greatly to the success of the cause.

The "organ" says: "If there are any betting men amongst the Democrats of Portland who have money to invest, we do not know the fact." Just so. There have been no betting Democrats in Portland since the return of Smith from the South. Plenty of money was offered by betting Democrats when Smith was first nominated, but none is offered now.

Suffrage in the Loyal States.

An absurd outcry is often raised by the Copperheads that Congress is preparing to interfere with the suffrage in the Northern or Loyal States. We have before referred to this matter and have taken occasion to show that though a bill to this effect has been introduced in Congress several times during the last three years, it has not been able to command any support or countenance in that body. A short time ago Mr. Spaulding, a Republican Representative from Ohio, made the following remarks in Congress on this subject:

> I wish to remark that only last October I was called upon as a citizen of Ohio to vote on the proposition to amend the Constitution of that State by inserting a right for the free black to vote equally with the whites. I not only voted cheerfully for that provision as amendatory of my State Constitution, but I used all my influence with the citizens in my section of the State to induce them to engraft that provision on our State Constitution. It was unsuccessful. Now I would like to see the member of Congress from the State of Ohio who would come here and have the boldness to vote for the passage of this bill which cuts directly across the Constitution of the United States and really divides the action of the people of my State who have refused to insert in their own Constitution of State government this general right of suffrage for blacks as well as whites. Sir, I believe the day may come when our Constitution, the great bulwark of our liberty, shall be so amended as that all free people may vote at the polls. But so long as the Constitution remains as it is I will suffer my right arm to drop from its socket sooner than vote for any such bill as that now before the House. In saying this I am bold to affirm that I speak the sentiment of a large majority of my colleagues on this floor, irrespective of party.

This, it cannot be doubted, is the feeling of the entire Union party. The proposition which Mr. Spaulding was alluding to has never come to a vote in Congress and there is no probability that it ever will, as it is known that it could not command a dozen votes in both branches of that body. Nor is this position which the Union party unanimously hold inconsistent in the smallest degree with their support of the Congressional policy of reconstruction. The difference between interfering with the suffrage in States which have never been disorganized by rebellion, and insisting upon those States whose organizations were destroyed by their own acts, reorganizing themselves upon the principle of equal rights—employing this method as the only way to secure reorganization—is too obvious to require argument.

The number of subscribers to the public loan is very nearly 1,000,000. Nine tenths of this number are people who invested small loans. It is these bonds held by the people which the Democratic party propose to virtually repudiate by flooding the country with irredeemable stump tail currency which the holders of the bonds are to be compelled to take.

Lieutenant Governor Holden of California, who presided over the late Copperhead Convention of that State, made a speech in which he declared that "Lincoln violated the Constitution in calling out seventy-five thousand men to put down the rebellion." This has the ring of the Democracy of 1861.

'Democracy' in 1864.

[From British Brunswick paper, Aug. 25, 1864.]

We venture the assertion that there is not a constitutional monarch in Europe who could retain his crown a month after the perpetration of such despotic acts upon his subjects as Abraham Lincoln has almost daily inflicted upon sovereign citizens of the United States.

[From the same, July 15, 1864.]

The secessionists made no war upon our institutions, and their act of expatriation no more affected the Government than would the withdrawal of a portion of the stockholders affect the franchises of a corporation.

[From the same, July 9, 1864.]

The secessionists formally renounced their allegiance to and their independence of, the Federal Government, before committing any act of hostility, and by force of arms have achieved belligerent rights and the consequent right to be treated by the United States only as foreign enemies. The abolitionists trampled upon the Constitution and conspired to overthrow the Government to which they owed exclusive allegiance. Who are the worst traitors?

IRISH REPUBLICAN ASSOCIATION.—This Association held a meeting in Washington March 17th, when Martin Cronin, late of California, offered the following resolutions, which were unanimously adopted:

Resolved, That the thanks of this Association and of the Irish generally, are due to those Republican Senators and Representatives who have voluntarily espoused and ably advocated the cause of naturalized citizens at home and abroad.

Resolved, That Gen. N. P. Banks, of Massachusetts, the champion of naturalized citizens in Congress, who had no superior as a patriot, statesman and soldier, is our choice for the position of Vice President on the Republican ticket with General Grant, and no other man has so strong a claim to the support of the Irish as that which he possesses.

Resolved, That we are in favor of Mr. Sumner's bill for extending the city charter, as best calculated to protect the rights and interests of the working people against the moneyed monopolies, speculators and City Hall rings.

Resolved, That our motto is equality of privileges to all loyal citizens without any distinction whatever.

THAT BET.—Of the betting which has lately attracted attention here and at Salem, the Record says:

> We incline to think that when they requested us to give notice that three gentlemen had each a thousand dollars in bank, waiting for bets, that it would not be taken. It sounded a little like grandeur, and would have been a nice thing to brag over until election. But Union men were not behindhand, and when the three thousand on Logan was forthcoming there was a humming and buzzing in the Democratic hive that was wonderful. But, little by little they raised the required amount, forming a Democratic joint stock company for the purpose. We hear there are ten thousand dollars more of Republican money ready for a like investment, and shall stand in readiness to announce other banters for our Democratic friends.

The following is the Union ticket of Douglas county:

State Senator—Binger Hermann
Joint Senator—Chas. M. Pershbaker
Representatives—J. F. Gazley, J. J. Flook, Jas. Applegate
Sheriff—John Hill
Clerk—R. A. Lathrop
Treasurer—R. C. Slocum
School Superintendent—W. H. Byars
Commissioners—S. Wheeler, Dan. Leavins
Coroner—A. Thomas

The Elevator, organ of the colored people at San Francisco and conducted by Africans, says in its latest issue:

> Only think of it, ye Democracy! Gov. Haight, the representative of the anti-Chinese element, presiding at a Chinese festival, hobnobbing with Chin Ajan, Sam Wap and others. O tempora! O mores! What is this world coming to?

About 100 gold and silver coins of the reigns of Charles I and Charles II and Elizabeth, in an excellent state of preservation, were recently found in the Tyne, England. A considerable number more of coins in gold, silver and copper, were found at the same spot the next day. Among them were a few Dutch and Russian pieces, bearing date from 16[illegible] to 1792.

The La Crosse Democrat, the leading Democratic paper of the North-west, has the following:

> "Some one says that the Radicals fear Grant will be assassinated. So he will if he is elected President, and it would not do the country the least harm."

What prophetic fellows those Democrats are, says the Oregon Sentinel. A few years since, one Southerner was going to lick five of the Northern trash—square out of their boots! Now, one nigger is about to crowd eight of the superior race to the wall.

A man with a very large bald head was complimented on the fact that his caput was analogous to Greenland. "Why?" he asked. "Because it is a great white bare place," was the reply.

The Missouri Legislature has empowered St. Louis to guarantee bonds, to the amount of $1,000,000 of the Company organized to build a bridge across the Mississippi at that city.

LATE EASTERN ITEMS.

From Chicago papers April 1.

The Senate Committee on Contingent Expenses report that they have found out and [illegible] accounts adjusted to the last dollar.

The Memphis Bulletin says: "It appears plain that most people in this State who are in want of a situation will run for Congressman for the State at large."

The following Government rewards are offered for the arrest of the assassin of T. D'Arcy McGee: Dominion Government, $5,000; Ontario, $[illegible]; Quebec, $[illegible]; City of Ottawa, $1,000; City of Montreal, $[illegible]; total, $[illegible].

The Secretary of the Navy has allowed the claim of [illegible] for $350,000, and the [illegible] for $2[illegible], both to Alex. Swift & Co., of Cincinnati, and the entire amount has been deposited in the treasury. What will they do with them?

The New York Times said something in a tone of irony which an Augusta paper failed to take. This obtuseness nettles the Times into exclaiming, "The people of the Southern States are probably not all fools, but a very large proportion of that class seem to have gone into the business of editing newspapers."

A freedman who left Charleston, South Carolina, for Liberia, a few months ago, writes back the most glowing accounts of matters and things there. He says he never felt free until he reached the colored man's own republic, and is quite rapturous in describing the luxuriant fertility of the country. He advises all his friends to join him in the new land of promise.

The brain of Mr. McGee weighed fifty-nine ounces. The mean weight in man is forty-five ounces. That of the great Irish orator O'Connell weighed fifty-four ounces. That of the Lord High Chancellor of England was fifty-three and one half ounces. Dupuytren's brain weighed fifty-eight ounces, and Cuvier's fifty-nine and one half ounces.

Mr. Bonner superfluously says: "General Grant had nothing whatever to do with the writing or the publication of the sketch of his early life written for the Ledger by his father. The sketch was begun and finished before Gen. Grant knew anything about it, and appeared in the Ledger in full just as it came from the General's father without the curtailment of a single word."

In Sturgis, Michigan, on election day, the ladies of the village assembled at Union School Hall to the number of one hundred and twenty and marched to the polls where a separate box having been provided, probably a hundred and fourteen of them deposited ballots in favor of prohibition and a select minority of six voted against it. While they were marching through the room where the election was held, the utmost order prevailed and when they were retiring three hearty cheers were given for them.

A lot of Lord Byron's correspondence has been discovered in a curious way. A pet ape of the monks of the Armenian convent, on San Lazzaro Island in the lagoons of Venice so pleasantly sketched by Mr. Howell in his "Venetian Life," was the agent of the discovery. This ape escaping from his master took refuge on top of a bookcase and being pursued threw at the head of the brother a roll of yellow and dusty letters which proved to be Lord Byron's. It is supposed that they will be published, but no hint is given as to the nature of them.

Joseph Mazzini has written a letter upon the present state of affairs in Italy, in which he comments in severe terms upon the moral cowardice of Italians of all parties during the late crisis. He is especially bitter in his denunciations of the course of Louis Napoleon and the weakness of his countrymen in submitting to the dictation of a foreigner. Mazzini then condemns the recent movement as premature and foredoomed to failure. The work of silent preparation, he says, must be begun anew under the guidance of a single name with a clearly defined line of action, excluding all who refuse their adhesion to the entire programme of the party.

The Democracy of Indiana are still in a fever heat about their Presidential candidate. The Pendleton party act like so many lunatics and will attempt to carry the thing through the convention with a hurrah, and they claim that their candidate now has within two votes of enough to nominate him, and that he will be nominated on the first ballot, while the other party claims that he cannot get half enough to nominate him on the first ballot. It is known that fully half of the delegates from the State as well as those of Ohio will not support him if they can find a more available candidate. It is said here that the old Bright interest in this State has been secured for Pendleton, with a promise that the Hon. Jesse D. Bright shall be cared for, and in consideration of this Mr. Bright has recently been here setting up the pegs in Pendleton's interest.

The London Owl furnishes the following late naval intelligence: The Ark was built in Messrs. Shem & Japhet's yard, the foremost ship builders of the period. At her launch, though from her build and size it must have been clear that she was destined for rough service, and not for mere coasting, which was then the only trade, no remonstrance seems to have been addressed to those in authority. She was a three decker and gopher plated. She was fully provisioned, evidence was ample that she had no intention of putting into any port, but that her mission was to keep the seas for an indefinite period. At the end of her cruise nothing besides herself was left on the surface of the ocean. She held undisputed sway. Yet her owners were never called to account for these results. There is a tradition that one of the firm on board, named Ham, wanted to hoist the black flag, but was speedily rebuked by his commanding officer.

Spring Styles of Hats and Caps in great varieties, received per steamer Continental and for sale by J. A. Daly, 103 Front street.

EVERY PERSON SHOULD CLOTHE themselves according to the weather. As the summer advances our citizens should not neglect to procure one of those handsome light weight suits KOHN & FISHEL, No. [illegible] Front street, have for sale. A glimpse at their goods will convince ladies as well as gents that they are far superior to any others in town and the prices unusually low.

A CARD.
WHEN THE POPULATION OF SAN FRANCISCO increases so rapidly, how is it the number of deaths decreases? Simply because that excellent Tonic, Lacour's Sarsapariphere Bitters have been introduced.
Like the lighthouse to the mariner they are the guide to those who use them to outride the breakers of disease in the journey of life.
To them was awarded the FIRST PREMIUM at the late state fair. The committee highly and especially recommended them for their medicinal qualities.
Their Emblem is a Lighthouse.
Their Device: Pro Bono Publico.

New York Gold Quotations [illegible]

AN UNMITIGATED NUISANCE.—Next to the toothache or getting one's fingers caught in the crack of a door, there is nothing more vexatious or better calculated to lessen the christian tendencies in human nature than the annoyances of unruly cows. We would like to see the man whose heart was ever so thoroughly regenerated as to be [illegible] against the feelings of anger that he would not feel a hearty [illegible] upon seeing a gaunt old cow with insane eyes walk up to the gate of his garden or grass plot, deliberately burst it open, and kindling weed walk in and at once begin to gulp down the branches of his choice shrubs, at every step crushing out of sight in the mellow soil some little tender bulb, rare and valued plant or flower. If such a man lives, we will walk with misanthropic [illegible] to gaze on his serenely placid countenance just to have it to say that we have seen with mortal eyes one of the angel throng. If there be such a man living we beg to suggest to him that as even angels sometimes fall it would be hazardous in the extreme for him to try the experiment of enacting the character of a householder in Portland. He would be in danger. There are more cows in the streets of Portland than he probably ever met with; they have gaunter shapes, more intensely insane eyes; they understand more in detail the art of gate and fence breaking; they are gifted with greater perseverance in the pursuit of gastronomic pleasures; when interrupted and expelled from some little paradise they will wait longer for another opportunity and embrace it with greater promptitude when it does offer, than any other possible cows. Without any exaggeration the cows of this city constitute a predatory force more dangerous to property than all the human thieves, burglars, robbers and highwaymen this side of San Francisco. They are an infernal unmitigated (here imagine the most profane possible objurgative word) nuisance, and the only wonder is that the owners of them do not bear cutting short their earthly existence with shot guns, [illegible], swords and pistols, [illegible], stones, staves, bludgeons, etc., etc. In the light of public policy why should dogs be taxed for the privilege of running at large while cows go at will, single, in pairs, or in droves up and down and doing more damage than all the dogs, cats, varmints and human rogues combined? Hogs are delightful visitants as compared with cows. Hogs will go through holes if they find them; cows, Portland cows, make the holes, and big ones, too, and open the breeches faster than any man with ordinary industry can close them. There should be a cow pound and a pound master and then if all the city cows were pounded till dead, the pestilence which would probably follow, would be a comparatively great public blessing.

THE BETH ISRAEL FAIR.—We paid a brief visit last evening to the Ladies Fair for the benefit of the Congregation Beth Israel. The room, large as it is, was densely crowded with visitors. The general arrangement of affairs seems to have been accomplished with much good taste, as well as with a view to the best possible display of the goods to be disposed of. Around the walls there are richly decked out bazaar tables, lunch tables, post office, mimic shows, lemonade wells, fish ponds, lotteries, etc., etc., while in the centre of the room is a large evergreen bower. There is a piano and other musical instruments on the stage, upon which Prof. Grob and others occasionally perform for the pleasure of the audience. It would be an endless task to describe the articles with which the tables and racks are loaded. It will be sufficient to say that the display is rich and varied beyond any precedent in the line of fairs in this city so far as we have seen them. The financial prospects of the fair are, also, most flattering. It will be continued to day, this evening, to morrow and to-morrow evening.

LATE FROM NEW YORK.—We are indebted to Mr. H. H. J[illegible] for a copy of the New York Price Current, of April 15th. Among other matters of interest it contains the following comparative quotations of the various brands of flour at that time in the market:

State, superfine brands	₩ bbl $ 9 00@ 9 55
State, extra brands	10 05@10 25
State, choice brands	10 45@11 00
Ohio, common brands	10 05@10 45
Ohio, fancy brands	10 50@10 [illegible]
Ohio, good and choice extra brands	10 60@14 00
Michigan Indiana Wisconsin, etc	9 00@14 00
Genesee, extra brands	11 25@13 75
Missouri	10 25@15 50
Californian, [includes Oregon]	12 50@14 50

[illegible], alone—the best brand east of the Rocky Mountains—has a higher range than Pacific Coast. The average between extremes, however, shows to the advantage of Pacific Coast brands, by 62½c per bbl.

FIRST PUBLIC TELEGRAM BY THE DALLES LINE.—The following dispatch from the Cascades was received last evening:

"The telegraph was completed to this place and office opened this day. The Columbia river is spanned by two wires stretched a distance of one thousand feet. They were run by the steamer Julia, Capt. Smith. An excursion party composed of army officers and families, and accompanied by a splendid brass band, visited this place to-day from Vancouver. His Excellency, Gov. Moore, of Washington Territory passed here to-day on his way to Walla Walla. The telegraph is constructed five miles beyond this point to day. Weather very warm."

INJURED BY POWDER.—Yesterday afternoon, Bona Lappeus, a little son of Mr. Jas. H. Lappeus, and Willie Anderson, while playing together found a powder can containing a small amount of gunpowder, and proceeded at once to the usual boyish experiments with it. Naturally enough an explosion soon followed, resulting in injuries to both the little fellows. Mr. Lappeus' boy received a cut in the palm of one hand, had his face well blackened, but fortunately, not much burned. Willie Anderson was less fortunate. His face was badly burned and filled with powder grains. The physicians called, Drs. Ellis and Glisan, think however that in time, the disfiguring marks may grow out.

COPPER IN CLACKAMAS COUNTY.—Mr. R. V. Short has left with us says the Enterprise a fine sample of almost pure copper, which is found in this county near Boone's ferry. The sample was given to Mr. Short by Mr. F. M. Shaver, who found it about two feet under the surface of the ground, in a place where he was excavating for gravel to put into his dam near the river. There can be no doubt whatever about the genuineness of this article, and we are informed that since the discovery evidences have been found tending to show that the quantity is almost inexhaustible. Thus has been added another wealth producing item to the already long list of rich [illegible] in Clackamas county.

FROST INJURY TO FRUIT.—The Record of yesterday says: There have been continued frosts for a week or so back, and in many localities the fruit buds are said to have received serious injury.

The Walla Walla Statesman of the 9th says: "The cold nights of last week have played sad havoc with the fruit trees in this Valley. Mr. John Hancock, living on the Walla Walla, about ten miles below town, informs us that trees from which he expected to gather two thousand bushels of fruit are entirely blighted. We hear of an orchard on Dry Creek, where out of five hundred peach trees that bore last year but one tree shows signs of 'bloom' this season.

DRAMATIC AND MUSICAL.—Mr. John O'Neil the popular Irish character and comedian, is engaged in perfecting arrangements for an entertainment to be given shortly after the 20th inst., in this city. The performances will be varied—consisting of melodrama, songs sentimental and songs comic, dancing, popular recitations, [illegible] etc. Mr. O'Neil expects the assistance of some of the members of the Vancouver Amateur Dramatic Troupe, and some of the best talent in this city.

NORTH PACIFIC RAILROAD.—It is stated that the President and Chief Engineer of the North Pacific Railroad [illegible], have requested Mr. Phillip Ritz, of Walla Walla, to make an examination of Salmon river this [illegible], with the view of locating a road through that way. All information from parties who have been through that country, if forwarded to Mr. Ritz, Walla Walla, will be thankfully received and forwarded directly to the Company by him.

HEAVY WORK.—Mr. Hart, Superintendent of the construction of the Oregon Central Railroad, west side, informs us that he has a large force of men now at work on a cut of 57 feet depth, the ground from which is wheeled into a canyon near by which requires 75 feet of filling. These kinds of ups and downs are not frequent, even between this city and the summit—the most difficult portion of the road—and the work is represented as going forward with encouraging rapidity.

INSTALLATION.—At a meeting of Hillsboro Lodge I. O. G. T., May 5, 1868, the following officers were installed: G. G. Long, W. C. T.; Mary A. Brown, W. V. T.; C. A. W[illegible], W. S.; W. D. Pittenger, W. A. S.; F. M. Kelso, W. F. S.; R. B. Williams, W. T.; Marion Griffith, W. M.; Catharine Wherling, W. D. M.; Sarah C. Brown, W. I. G.; John Jackson, W. O. G.; Melvina Pittenger, W. R. S.; Louis Kela, W. L. S.; Calvin Adams, W. C.

STARTED FOR THE FIELD.—After a brief visit among their old friends in this city and Vancouver, Capt. Kelly and family started yesterday morning for the Dalles [illegible], they will as soon as practicable, proceed to Camp Harney. The Captain is under orders to proceed with his company to Camp McDermitt, Nevada, and he will march from Camp Harney as soon after his arrival, as [illegible] station can be got ready.

COMMENCED.—The large double brick building to be erected on Front street by Messrs. Moffitt and Strowbridge, on the site of the old Mansion House, was begun Saturday, by Mr. Thos. H. Richardson, the contractor for the brick work. The entire building is to be under the superintendence of Mr. John Nestor. It will be a large building and an ornament to the locality.

OREGON PRODUCTS.—The following were the receipts yesterday: Per steamer Senator, 11 bales woolen goods, 138 gunnies bacon, 14 hlf bbls dried apples, 5 bales straw, 1 case lard, 46 boxes apples and 4 boxes unspecified. Per [illegible] Alert, 1,37[illegible] qr sks flour, 281 bags wheat, 21 boxes apples, 2 boxes eggs, 3 cases unspecified.

TEMPERANCE LIBRARY FAIR.—A fair for the benefit of the Temperance Library Association, will be shortly held under the auspices of the lady members of the several Good Templar lodges, of this city. At present the ladies are engaged in preparing a goodly stock of articles to be disposed of at the fair.

REVENUE TAXES.—The Collector announces that the annual list of taxes for the year 1867 is now in his hands for collection, and that persons owing taxes on incomes, licenses, carriages, watches, gold and silver plate, must pay the same within ten days if they wish to avoid the addition of costs.

A CHALLENGE.—The First Nine of the Athletic B. B. club has challenged the First Nine of the Spartan club to play a match game at the public grounds on Ross Island next Saturday. The latter club will hold a meeting this evening to consider the challenge.

U. S. DISTRICT COURT—DEADY, JUDGE.—This court convened yesterday morning, and adjourned without transacting any business.

RECOMMITTED.—The man, Wm. Martin, charged before the Recorder, with an attempt to commit a rape upon a little girl, had his preliminary examination [illegible]. The Recorder held him to answer before the next grand jury.

THE BARK [illegible].—This vessel as soon as her cargo is discharged [illegible] will be loaded with lumber for San Francisco. She was built for the lumber trade and is [illegible] for that sort of cargo.

TREASURE [illegible].—Of [illegible] yesterday [illegible] Wells, Fargo & Co. sent $1[illegible] other parties $10,000.

[illegible] the agent of the [illegible] Asylum [illegible]

[illegible] their respective camps.

[illegible] & [illegible].—This firm has just received a very large [illegible] advertisement for particulars. Everybody in general and the people from the country [illegible] their advantage to give them a call and examine their goods.

ORIGIN OF BANKS.—The first bank established was in Italy A. D. 808 by the Jews of Lombardy many of whom settled in Lombard street, London, where many bankers now do business, making it in some respects, to that city, what Wall street is to New York. The word 'Bank' as we have elsewhere explained in this calendar originally meant "a bench or table," in allusion to those on which the money brokers transacted business, and corresponding with the word counter of our days. The Mint of the tower of London, however, was anciently the place where merchants deposited their money, until Charles the First laid hands upon it and thus destroyed its credit. Being thus forced to find some other place of security for their funds, which excited robberies, and the peculation of their apprentices, when kept at home, they agreed in 1654 to deposite them with the goldsmiths of Lombard street, who were provided with strong boxes for the security of their own valuable wares, and this was the origin of the banking system in England.—The Banker.

TEETH EXTRACTED
AND PAIN MITIGATED
By Dr. Richardson's Apparatus, Lately Improved by Dr. Koehler, with Ether Spray.
WILLIAM KOEHLER,
DENTIST.

OFFICE AND RESIDENCE.—Southwest corner Front and Yamhill Streets, opposite E. J. Northrup & Co.'s Hardware Store.

I am now making amongst numerous other styles of ARTIFICIAL TEETH the improved Vulcanite Plates of Dr. G. W. Cool's Patent, patented Dec. 3, 1866, the improvement of which consists in lining the entire concave surface with fine gold; it not only makes the plate double as strong and cleanlier than the common Vulcanite Plate. It also can be made considerably thinner and lighter, whereas the price is but little above that for common plates. Call and see specimens.

N. B.—Dentists wishing to secure the office right for Dr. G. W. Cool's Improved Vulcanite Plates can have it made out to them by applying to this office.

N. B.—To strangers I would say that a constantly increasing Dental Practice for the last five years in this city will be a sufficient guarantee for them to receive a First Class and Finished Piece of Work. Numerous testimonials to the same can be given at the office.

A THRILLING INCIDENT
In the mission life of Mrs. [illegible] of Burmah is well told in the "Baptist Messenger" [illegible] relating how she was [illegible] to visit one of the Buddhist high priests [illegible] who had been nearly killed [illegible] while in the [illegible] place in their temple, where none but the priests had ever before been admitted [illegible] permitted [illegible] to use for him the sacred vessels, which none but the high priest dare touch [illegible] and sit on one of their gods to rest [illegible] through the [illegible] of the Pain Killer, called by the [illegible] "God medicine," so successfully had she used it in curing their many diseases [illegible] fatal in that climate, among which were cholera [illegible] dyspepsia, the [illegible] &c. This speaks volumes for the Pain Killer.

Rev. I. [illegible] Missionary at [illegible], Northern India writes: "We [illegible] Pain Killer very highly for scorpion stings, cholera, &c. [illegible] get along without it."

Rev. J. D. [illegible] Missionary [illegible] Burmah writes: "I shall be happy to [illegible] extending a knowledge of a remedy so [illegible]." mldaw1m

HOSTETTER'S
CELEBRATED STOMACH BITTERS!
A Pure and Powerful Tonic,
Corrective and Alterative, of wonderful efficacy in Diseases of the STOMACH, LIVER AND BOWELS.
PROTECTIVE PROPERTIES.
Prevents Fever and Ague and Billious Remittent Fevers; Fortifies the System against Miasma and the evil effects of unwholesome water. Invigorates the organs of digestion and the bowels.
Steadies the Nerves and tends to Prolong Life.
REMEDIAL PROPERTIES.
Cures Dyspepsia, Liver Complaint, Sick and Nervous Headache, General Debility, Nervousness, Depression of Spirits, Constipation, Colic, Intermittent Fevers, Sea Sickness.
Cramps and Spasms, and all complaints of either sex arising from Bodily Weakness, whether inherent in the system or PRODUCED BY SPECIAL CAUSES.
NOTHING THAT IS NOT WHOLESOME, GENIAL and restorative in its nature enters into the composition of HOSTETTER'S STOMACH BITTERS. This popular preparation contains no mineral of any kind, no deadly botanical element, no fiery excitant, but is a combination of the extracts of rare balsamic herbs and plants with the purest and mildest of all diffusive stimulants.
The weak stomach is rapidly invigorated and the appetite restored by this Tonic, and hence it works wonders in cases of Dyspepsia and in less confirmed forms of Indigestion. Acting as a gentle and painless aperient, as well as upon the liver, it also invariably relieves the Constipation superinduced by irregular action of the digestive and secretive organs.
Persons of feeble habit, liable to Nervous Attacks, Lowness of Spirits and Fits of Languor, find prompt and permanent relief from the Bitters. The testimony on this point is conclusive, and from both sexes.
As a Genuine Tonic HOSTETTER'S BITTERS produce effects which must be experienced or witnessed before they can be fully appreciated. In cases of Constitutional Weakness, Premature Decay and Debility and Decrepitude arising from old age, it exercises the electric influence. In the convalescent stages of all diseases it operates as a delightful invigorant. When the powers of nature are relaxed, it operates to re-enforce and re-establish them.
Last but not least, it is the only safe stimulant, being manufactured from sound and innocuous materials and entirely free from the acid elements present more or less in all the ordinary tonics and stomachics of the day.
SOLD EVERYWHERE.

G. VENARD,
CHARTRES COFFEE!
Manufactory Established in June, 1851.
STEAM POWER NOS. 625 AND 627 FRONT ST.
HAS CONSTANTLY ON HAND GROUND AND ROASTED COFFEE, GREEN COFFEE of the best qualities. CREAM OF TARTAR and SPICES of all sorts.
The undersigned, who has always enjoyed public confidence for the excellent quality of his Coffee, neglects nothing to justify the good name acquired by his productions, the sale of which daily increases. The acknowledged superiority of his merchandise, which commands here and in the markets of the interior, a relatively higher price, excites the cupidity of some manufacturers and every day he sees increasing the number of those who by counterfeit or imitation of his mark seek to deceive the public, palming upon them their inferior productions for the genuine G. VENARD CHARTRES COFFEE. This fraud can deceive nobody after a trial, but only adds to the favorable opinion of the consumers the very flattering though unwilling testimony of the counterfeiters. Nevertheless buyers should be forewarned and placed on their guard against this practice.
BEWARE OF COUNTERFEITS.

The Kind of Candidates which the "Democracy" Nominate

[From the Irish Republic

In the case of the Wisconsin election which is to come off on the 7th of April there are questions involved in connection with the different candidates, which are of deep and universal interest to the Irish people of America. If it were merely a choice between Republicans and Democrats neither [illegible] whom, it may be had ever done much for the relief of our enslaved country we might hold our peace, and leave our friends to act in consistency with those principles of liberty which as citizens of the American Republic they profess to hold. For, unfortunately in too many instances the Irish voter the Irishman is seldom allowed to be anything but a voter in the political party of his choice, has to cast his vote for one of two men, neither of whom has ever practically done anything for him or his country. In that case he ought in our judgment to go in for whichever candidate binds himself, on principle for duty to Ireland and to all men. But in the present instance it is altogether different. Of the two sets of candidates in Wisconsin the Republican and the Democratic—for the offices of Chief Justice and Associate Justice of the Supreme Court, while the former—the Republican may never have endeavored to do any practical good to the Irishmen of America the latter the Democratic have in one instance at all events, and on a notorious occasion, labored hard to do them a positive evil.

We proceed to prove our assertion.

Judge Dunn, the Democratic candidate for Chief Justice, was a member of the Constitutional Convention of the State of Wisconsin. With the narrowness of a proslavery Kentuckian, he opposed the very liberal provision of that Constitution in regard to admitting the foreign (that is the Irish) born to suffrage. It allows a foreigner to vote on a year's residence in the State and declaration of his intention to become a citizen. Judge Dunn's most elaborate speech in the Convention was in favor of restricting suffrage to citizens of the United States. We subjoin an extract from his speech:

"Congress has made it necessary that the foreigner should declare his intention of becoming a citizen two years in advance. He must have been in the country five years before his citizenship could be perpetuated, and, more important than all, he could not, even then, until he had proved a good moral character, his attachment to our Government and sworn allegiance to it, and renounced allegiance to all others. If Congress had considered all these things necessary to the obtaining of the rights of citizenship, was it wise in the convention to depart so widely from those rules in conferring the important right of suffrage? He did not believe that it was."—See Journal of the Convention to form a Constitution for the State of Wisconsin, etc., page 148.

Like all the good and true men of our race throughout the length and breadth of the United States, the Irishmen of Wisconsin are proud and jealous, as they ought to be, of their rights as free citizens of this great Republic. They have seen and felt, with intense indignation, the wanton violation of those rights by England and her accursed minions, who now hold hundreds of our citizen brothers captive in their infernal dungeons, where slow death is administered with a cruelty as dreadful and deliberate as ever was displayed by Indian savages. They have seen a false American Executive, President, Secretary of State, and Ambassador to England, all, if not conniving at these horrors leaving them utterly unrebuked and unavenged. They have called loudly on Congress to interfere for the honor of the country and the protection of its persecuted citizens. They value the right, then, and are resolved to maintain it. Will—will one of them vote for a man, and that man is Charles Dunn—who did his wicked best, in the State Convention which framed the Constitution of Wisconsin, to prevent Irishmen from ever being allowed to possess or to exercise the rights of American citizens? Will they, in order to put the hoary slaveowner of Kentucky into power (who would have kept them slaves if he could) vote against the very men who, in defiance of all opposition, conferred upon them the rights of American freemen? We will not, cannot believe it. And, therefore, we say, even to the most prejudiced among them, if you cannot vote for those who were your friends, DO NOT, IN GOD'S AND YOUR COUNTRY'S NAME, VOTE FOR THOSE WHO WERE YOUR ENEMIES.

The Michigan Election.

Of course the defeat of the new Constitution of Michigan is hailed by the enemies of equal suffrage as a grand triumph of their principles, or more properly their want of principles. The Chicago Republican, published where the internal affairs of Michigan excite more interest and are better understood, gives the true explanation of the result. It says:

The defeat of the Constitution has been anticipated for several weeks by its warmest friends. The opposition to it was of the most heterogeneous character. It embraced the most opposing interests and hostile factions. It was voted against by all the following classes:

1. By all the Democrats, because it made all the freemen of the State voters, and by a few hundred Republicans for the same reason.
2. By the large body of the Spiritualists of the State, because there was a requirement that the Legislature shall be opened "with prayer," and the preamble says something about "a reliance on God."
3. By another class of voters, because the Constitution provides that no appeal shall be had from the Board of Supervisors of a county in relation to accounts against the county for services.
4. By a large and respectable class, because the instrument allows townships to vote aid to railroad projects. The last Legislature was flooded with bills legalizing these township subscriptions. Governor Crapo vetoed all the bills, and all the thousands in the State who agreed with him voted against the Constitution. The question has divided the population of every township. It was one of direct taxation.
5. It was voted against by the great bulk of the prohibition party, for the reason that the present Constitution authorizes prohibitory legislation, which the new Constitution will not permit, unless the separate clause to that effect be adopted.
6. Another cause inducing many to vote against the Constitution was that it would double the salaries of nearly all of the State officers.

Notice to Tax Payers

The following notice to the tax payers of Lane county is published in the Eugene Journal:

When the Union party took possession of the county affairs in 1862, the county was in debt about six thousand dollars, and county orders worth about sixty cents on the dollar. They laid a tax of ten mills on the dollar, and with this they paid the county out of debt—paying county orders as fast as presented. During that time they painted the Court House, repaired the jail, made appropriations for bridges and bought a fine safe for the use of the county, and kept all county expenses paid up neatly. And a large proportion of these taxes were paid in greenbacks at par. The county officers took them for their pay at par; but could get only forty cents on the dollar for them in making purchases for the county such as Court House bell, safe, etc.

And during all the time that the Union men were in power the levy never got above eleven mills on the dollar. And they turned the county affairs over to the Democracy, the county out of debt, and county orders at par.

The Democracy have been running the county [illegible] two years—no improvements visible—taxes fourteen mills, with a fair prospect of being higher—county orders depreciated, and large demands against the county refused payment because of a scarcity of funds.

RELIGION AND RIFLES.—Mr. Hepworth Dixon's book about American religions, shows that the author has a great respect for cash and rifles as a method of estimating the pretensions of a religious body. The New York Times pithily says: "It is enough for Mr. Dixon that this or that doctrine has its Rabbi who talks big to him, has a stanch body of disciples, and, above all, has plenty of rifles, that there are any further [illegible] tests to be applied to a doctrine before it is pronounced important never seems to occur to him. 'It is easy to say,' he writes of the Mormons, 'that these saints are dupes and [illegible] [illegible] Joe Smith and his church, but what then? The great facts remain, Young and his people are at Utah, a church of two hundred thousand souls, an army of twenty thousand rifles.'"

SOOTHING AND BRACING.—There is no preparation in existence which has such a soothing effect in cases of nervous excitement as

Although the fame of this renowned invigorant rests mainly on its astonishing cures of Dyspepsia, Liver Complaint and intestinal disorders it is equally efficacious in nervous complaints. Thousands of ladies resort to it as a remedy for hysteria, fluttering of the heart, nervous headache, vertigo, general debility and all peculiar disturbances and derangements to which as a sex they are subject. It cheers and lightens the depressed mental powers as well as strengthens the body, and its use is never followed by any unpleasant reaction. Sold by all Druggists and dealers everywhere.

Medical.

TO THE UNFORTUNATE.

NEW REMEDIES, NEW REMEDIES
Dr. Gibbon's Dispensary,

616 KEARNEY STREET, NEAR COMMERCIAL, San Francisco. Established in 1854, for the treatment of Sexual and Seminal Diseases, such as Gonorrhea, Gleet, Stricture, Syphilis in all its forms, Seminal Weakness, Impotency, etc. Skin Diseases of years standing and Ulcerated Legs successfully treated.

Horrible Diseases.

How many thousands of persons, both male and female, are there who are suffering out a miserable existence from the effects of secret indulgence, or from virus absorbed into the system. Look at their pallid, emaciated and disfigured faces and their broken-down constitutions disqualifying them for the happiness of marriage or the enjoyment of life. In this horrid situation thousands suffer until death closes the scene. Let parents, guardians, friends attend to those who are suffering with any of these horrible life destroying maladies—see that they are cared for and cured before it be too late. Send them immediately to Doctor Gibbon, a physician who has made private diseases his especial study for years and who is certain to cure the most inveterate case without mercury or any injurious drugs. It is important to those who are afflicted, or to those who are interested in the welfare of their friends, to be careful of the many pretended Doctors who infest all cities, publishing their skill in curing all diseases in a few days, imposing upon the public by using the names of eminent physicians from Europe and other places. Be therefore careful and make strict inquiry or you may fall into the hands of these charlatans.

Seminal Weakness.

Seminal Emissions the consequence of self abuse. This solitary vice or depraved sexual indulgence, is practised by the youth of both sexes to an almost unlimited extent producing, with unerring certainty, the following train of morbid symptoms, unless combatted by scientific medical measures, viz.: Sallow countenance, dark spots under the eyes, pain in the head, ringing in the ears, noise like the rustling of leaves and rattling of chariots, uneasiness about the loins, weakness of the limbs, confused vision, blunted intellect, loss of confidence, diffidence in approaching strangers, a dislike to form new acquaintances, a disposition to shun society, loss of memory, hectic flushes, pimples and various eruptions about the face, furred tongue, fetid breath, coughs, consumption, night sweats, monomania and frequent insanity. If relief be not obtained should apply immediately, either in person or by letter, and have a cure effected by his new and scientific mode of treating this disease, which never fails of effecting a quick and radical cure. Dr. G. will give One Hundred Dollars to any person who will prove satisfactorily to him that he was cured of this complaint by either of the San Francisco quacks.

MARRIED MEN,

Or those who contemplate marriage, who are suffering under any of these fearful maladies, should not forget the sacred responsibility resting upon them nor delay to obtain immediate relief.

DOCTOR GIBBON is responsible, and will give to each patient a written instrument, binding him—self to effect a radical and permanent cure, or make no charge.

CURED AT HOME.

Persons at a distance may be CURED AT HOME, by addressing a letter to Dr. Gibbon, stating case, symptoms, length of time the disease has continued, and have medicines promptly forwarded, free from damage and curiosity, to any part of the country, with full and plain directions for use, for Ten Dollars, sent in registered letter or through Wells, Fargo & Co.

Caution to the Unfortunate.

Beware of the San Francisco quacks and pretenders, who with bogus sworn to certificates, dupe the unwary. Some of the self-styled doctors whose names are to be found in the daily and weekly newspapers of San Francisco and other places are tradesmen and became too lazy to work at their trades. Some are tinsmiths, shoemakers, newspaper carriers, intelligence office keepers, etc. Look over the San Francisco Directory, and you will not find their Medical Institutes in it, but you will find their former occupations in it. Look at the Directory for 1862 and 1863. The only way to avoid imposition is to make enquiry—it will cost you nothing, and may save you many regrets, for, as advertising physicians in eight cases out of ten are bogus, there is no safety in trusting any of them until you know who and what they are. Dr. Gibbon does not deceive people by exhibiting bogus titles, certificates, pretended patient's letters, etc. Dr. Gibbon will satisfy persons who may call at his office of his ability to treat diseases that he proposes to cure.

Address DR. J. F. GIBBON, 616 Kearney street, corner Commercial, San Francisco. Post Office Box 252.
REMEMBER TO PUT BOX 252 ON THE LETTER.
Consultations FREE.

Correspondents will please inform DR. GIBBON that they read his advertisement in the Daily Oregonian.

H. W. SHIPLEY & CO.,
MANUFACTURERS OF
SHIPLEY'S PATENT PACIFIC
TURBINE WATER WHEEL!

OF WHICH THE ABOVE IS AN ILLUSTRATION, has FOUR SETS OF BUCKETS, AND USES THREE-FOURTHS OF THE WATER TWICE.

The old high priced, unequalled and unrivalled wheel has been PLATED out by a fair working trial made by Mr. H. Kelly, at his saw mill, and the public can see what he says as to the capacity of the two wheels in the following testimonial over his own signature:

MR. H. W. SHIPLEY, Sir: In reply to your inquiry as to how I like your Pacific Turbine Wheel, I have to say that I have used one over shot and three Leffel wheels, 10, 13 and 15 inch diameters. When I substituted your 15 inch wheel for the 15 inch Leffell wheel, though unfinished, it worked the machinery like a top using 32 ft of water per minute more than the 15 inch Leffell. At your request I subsequently took your wheel out that it might be finished, and then I put in a 15 inch Leffell. But it gave no better power than yours while it used 32 cubic feet more water per minute. After some months, I replaced your wheel and am still using it with the most satisfactory results. I have subjected it to some severe tests. For instance, while running the circular saw in a log which measured [illegible] inches, I added the planer with a 9 inch knife, cutting from one eighth to one fourth of an inch depth with out in the least slacking the speed. After these tests of both wheels I am satisfied that your wheel with gate one eighth of an inch open gives as much power as the Leffell with gate one third open. At half gate your wheel gives double the power of the Leffell at half gate. At full gate the power of yours exceeds that of the Leffell by from ten to twelve per cent. At quarter gate, the Leffell holds no comparison with yours at quarter gate.

N. B. Mr. Shipley was not present at either of the trials of his wheel, he being sick at the first and absent from the State at the second trial.

Sheriff's Sale

BY virtue of an execution, issued out of the County Court of the State of Oregon for the County of Multnomah, to me directed, in favor of T. J. Holmes, Jr., and J. M. Strowbridge, Administrators of the estate of Thomas J. Holmes, deceased, and against Thomas Agar, for the sum of $11, and interest and cost, I have this 20th day of April, 1868, levied the same on that certain piece or parcel of land, lying and being in Multnomah county, State of Oregon, known and described as Block No. 228, of the town of East Portland, and on Saturday, the 23d day of May, 1868, at the hour of 10 o'clock, A. M., in front of the court house door in said State and county, I will sell the same at public auction to the highest bidder therefor.
JACOB STITZEL,

Medical.

DR. J. C. YOUNG,
Medical and Surgical
INSTITUTE.

- ⁂ CONSULTATION, [illegible] CALLS, FREE.
- ⁂ CURES GUARANTEED, OR NO PAY REQUIRED.
- ⁂ IN ALL CASES WHERE CONFIDENCE IS REQUIRED THE UTMOST SECRESY MAINTAINED.

The above rules, established by Dr. J. C. Young in 1850, and which have done so much to secure the reputation of this Institute, are still adhered to, affording those in need of medical aid, the certainty of cure and the utmost confidence.

There is nothing of so great importance to the sick as to know where to find a physician whose skill and humanity give assurance of proper and delicate treatment. The Doctor would respectfully call the attention of those of both sexes who are suffering or in trouble to the invariable success that has marked the career of the Institute in the seventeen years of its existence.

It is unnecessary in this connection to enumerate all the complaints treated at the Institute, but the Doctor feels it his duty to call especial attention to that terrible scourge,

SEMINAL WEAKNESS,

That is sapping with its insidiousness the very life of its victims; in the treatment and cure of which the Institute has earned so enviable a reputation.

READ! READ

I am aware that by dwelling upon so uninviting a subject as the decay of manly vigor through the loss of the vital principle of life, the ignorant may asperse my motives; but the desire to point out to those who suffer, languish and decay, the true cause of their affliction, is too great an incentive to be forced into abeyance. How extended the terrible disease of Seminal Weakness is no one but the practical specialist who devotes his time to its treatment can tell, but its presence can be detected by the most inexperienced by noting the following symptoms. Weakness of the back and limbs, languishing feelings, loss of muscular power; nervousness, irritability, cold feet or hands, accompanied by hot head; symptoms of consumption, short breath, flushings of the face, aversion to society, confusion of the mind, loss of memory; nightly emissions; colorless, slight discharges upon the least excitement, trembling; palpitation of the heart; irregular appetite; variable temper, etc.

YOUNG MAN, if you experience any of the various symptoms enumerated above, pause to consider. The present is the golden moment in which you may secure health and happiness. You may feel strong now, but if you have ever practiced the vice of self abuse even in the slightest degree, you have the seeds of weakness in your system, and their undermining influence will, sooner or later dash the fair edifice of your strength to the ground, leaving you a helpless, abject being. It is not a disease that declares itself at once. Therein lies its greatest danger; for while the patient is being treated for some affection of the Heart, Lungs, Brain, or Digestive functions, he sinks into a general debility that soon adds him to the list of the victims of the terrible disorder, Seminal Weakness.

See in the bent form and languishing steps the poor victim of the fascinating vice! Mark the course of the destructive complaint in the hollow cheek and dull eye.

Drowsiness is one of the premonitory symptoms. At first it is easily shaken off, but it grows eventually into a great disinclination to pursue his regular business. The mind becomes apprehensive, and restless nights succeed days of depression.

It is the nature of the complaint to assume sudden changes that leave the poor victim but little hope of recovery. In a single instant it may wither your fond hopes and blast your honest aspirations.

Marriage is sought by a natural impulse as a hope of relief. This is an error of the first magnitude, for the system, unprepared for the exigencies of the occasion, suddenly fails, and he finds himself in a deplorable condition, from which there is but the slightest hope of recovery. Or if the marriage should result in offspring, they are puny, distorted, decrepid, and degenerate. This is applicable to both sexes, whether married or single, and to all times of life.

Do not delay if you feel any of the symptoms of the terrible complaint, or if your acts have been such as to lead to them, but by instant application secure to yourself the only hope of health and happiness. The Doctor uses no mercury or other deleterious drugs—cures, when taken in time, always guaranteed, and full and proper vigor restored.

The afflicted are assured of every confidence.

PERSONS AFFLICTED WITH VENEREAL.

During the seventeen years since the establishment of the Institute, the number of cases of Venereal that have been treated show a record unsurpassed by any hospital in the world, and the success that has invariably marked the course of treatment,

Without Mercury or other Deleterious Drugs,

Shows conclusively the use of them to be not only uncalled for but actually dangerous, for it is a thoroughly established medical principle that those poisonous drugs by entering the blood, ruin the constitution and destroy life.

The Doctor effects a cure in recent cases in a few days, and finds no difficulty in curing those of long duration without submitting the patient to such treatment as will draw upon him the slightest suspicion, or oblige him to neglect his business, whether in-doors or without. The diet need not be changed. Cures always guaranteed, or no pay required.

IMPORTANT TO FEMALES.

When a female is in trouble or afflicted with disease, and requires medical or surgical assistance, the inquiry should be: "Where is there a physician competent to administer relief and who is respectable standing in society will recommend him to the confidence of the community?" The Doctor, understanding how imperatively necessary these requirements are, feels called upon to interpose, and by so calling the attention of the afflicted to the fact that he has been a Professor of Obstetrics and Female Diseases for twenty years, and is fully qualified to administer in all cases both medically and surgically, not in a superficial manner, but rigs them in a manner as to be [illegible] and practice—both in hospitals and private families—can make to save them from the hands of the unqualified, unscrupulous or designing. Therefore families can rely upon him as upon a father. All in affliction can find in him one who can feel and sympathize with and befriend them in trouble—one in whose secrecy the utmost confidence can be placed—consultation by letter or otherwise free. Cures guaranteed in all weakness and trouble incidental to the sex. Private apartments are provided, when desired, where can be had all the advantages of unremitted attention of the Doctor, and the most skillful and faithful nurses.

TO CORRESPONDENTS.—Persons, either male or female, residing in the interior, are often deterred from consulting the Doctor because they cannot spare the time, nor incur the expense of a visit to the city. To such he would say that a plain statement of the symptoms and information bearing upon the complaint will enable him to prescribe for them so that they can be cured at home. None need have any false delicacy about writing no matter what the nature of their complaint, as the communication will be seen by no one except the Doctor, and will be treated with the utmost confidence, and either be returned or destroyed.

Consultation Free.
